

Invites you to 3 Hours of Continuing Education

Course Title: Drug Diversion in Veterinary Medicine

Course Description: This course is to provide education and awareness for veterinarians on the scope of problem, current trends, deceptive methods and strategy to detecting and reducing pharmaceutical drug diversion.

Topics: Scope of the Problem
Doctor Shopping
Prescription Fraud
Prescription Drug Monitoring Programs
Partnering, Networking & Proactive Strategies to Reducing Pharmaceutical Drug Diversion

Objectives: Understand the Scope of Pharmaceutical Drug Diversion.
Discuss the characteristics and methods of Doctor Shopping and Prescription Fraud.
Learn the benefits and drawbacks of utilizing Prescription Drug Monitoring Programs (PDMPs).
Discuss best practices to detect & reduce pharmaceutical drug diversion in veterinary medicine.

Wednesday, April 11, 2018

6:30 pm ■ Gather and Sign-In 7:00 – 10:00pm ■ Lecture

“The Alexander Room & Terrace”

3200 Ridgelake Drive, Metairie, LA 70002

Presented by: Dan Zsido

NADDI (National Association of Drug Diversion Investigators)

National Training & Education Director

This program meets new CE requirements per Act 76 of 2017, approved by Louisiana Board of Veterinary Medicine.

Members please email slva@southeastlva.org to RSVP by April 5 or call (504) 304-1507

Non-members register via the SLVA website at www.southeastlva.org

